HARDING SPEAKS IN FAIRMONT MONDAY

Ohio Senator Will Be Heard by
Many at Marion County
Capital.

(SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM)
FAIRMONT, Oct. 14.—United States Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, will address the voters of Marion county at the Marion county court house on Monday evening, October 16, at eight o'clock. Senator Harding, who was temporary chairman of the Republican national convention, will be greeted with a large crowd on his appearance here.

Governor in County.
Henry D. Hatfield, governor of West Virginia, spoke to a large crowd of voters at Farmington on Thursday evening. A large number of Republicans from this city attended the meeting, which was a most enthusiastic one. On Friday night the governor addressed the voters of the county at Monongah and at Worthington, going from Monongah, where he spoke at 7:30, to Worthington, where he spoke at 8:30. Monster crowds greeted the governor wherever he spoke.

Big Industrial Boom.
Indications are that the Fairmont Investment Company's shares amounting to 150,000 shares of preferred stock offered to the public will be over subscribed in a short time. The company, which has a capital stock of $1,500,000, has offered 150,000 of its preferred stock with a 75 per cent bonus of common stock to citizens who wish to help finance the big industrial scheme which the incorporators are pushing. The plan calls for the purchase of 1300 acres of land at Pleasant Valley, the options for which have already been secured, and to run the trolley lines to this suburb of the city, lay off roads, etc., and make this an industrial and residential section. This is in line with the fifty five plan of a population of fifty thousand in five years which was started recently by the chamber of commerce.

Monongah Pythians.
The Knights of Pythias lodge of Monongah celebrated its twenty-fourth anniversary on Tuesday of this week. At this time a new page rank was organized to be known as the Col. T. Garrick rank. ## INJURED DOG Limps to Hospital and Holds Up His Wounded Paw to Surgeon.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 14.—A forlorn little fox terrier limped on three feet up the driveway to the general hospital recently. Unobserved he followed orderlies as they carried in an injured man into the receiving ward. It was not until after J. C. Lynch had finished treating his patient that he heard a whining and whimpering at his feet. The little dog, holding up a crushed forepaw, was looking appealingly at the doctor. Pathetic brown eyes seemed trying to explain.

Dr. Lynch announced the dog's foot with limament and bandaged it. After a grateful lick of the doctor's white shoes, the fox terrier limped away.
